The Lohmann Affair. The Weimar Republic's attempts in the twenties to circumvent the Versailles restrictions on its armed forces produced clandestine operations which in their financing, cover devices, and hazards of exposure present a close parallel with intelligence operations. One such series of undercover research and development projects, carried out by a Captain Walther Lohmann of the ...

The process began long before that, it is the two world wars that destroyed Britain. In the 20th century we only really had one 'good' government and that was Clement Attlee's, elected in 1945, which created the NHS, the Welfare system and many other things that are so crucial to our standard of living.
